TAX COMMISSIONERS BUSY.

Taxpayers, at last stirred up to the necessity of paying their just burdens of taxation, have been coming into the offices of the City Tax Commissioners, Walter Clark and John J. Redmon, this week. The Commissioners have been inspecting the lists and find there are a few delinquents yet. However, it is believed the inevitable few will be in evidence.

BIG FOUR MOTOR COMPANY OPENS UP.

Monday, beside being County Court day was an auspicious day for the Big Four Motor Co., composed of local men. The new building at the corner of High and Eighth streets, recently completed, was dedicated to the purposes for which it was erected. Hundreds of interested people visited the new building through the day. Souvenirs were presented to the men, while the women callers were presented with carnations. A parade of new cars was held, traversing the principal streets, headed by a jazz band in a big truck.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y. M. C. A. report for October shows a building attendance of 7,509 for the month as compared with 6,466 for September. The activities included all phases of Y. M. C. A. activity, gymnasium classes, swimming, Bible classes, boys' games, foot-ball coaching, socials, committee meetings, public meetings, reading room, dining room, and dormitory attendance. The grade on the appearance of the building for October made by the State Y. M. C. A. is 2,051, a gain of 199 over September.

For November the various committees plan a continuance of the above activities with basket ball added, which is the most popular of all winter indoor sports.

On November 1st the membership stood at 366. One thousand is the goal.

DAUGHTERS REVOLUTION TO HOLD MEETING TO-MORROW

Election of officers will feature the regular meeting of the Jeannette Johnson Chapter, Daughters of Revolution, to be held at the home of Mrs. William Myall, at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. At this meeting, Mrs. Henry S. Caywood, Mrs. Charlotte Alexander, Mrs. W. G. Talbot, Mrs. Frank Elrod and Miss Elizabeth Grimes will make a report of the State meeting of the organization, held in Louisville, the past week. The year's work of the local Chapter as reported at the State meeting, will be read. This is an important meeting and all the members are urged to be present.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

—Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Thompson are visiting friends in Louisville.

—Miss Luna Duffey has returned from a week's visit to friends in Cincinnati.

—Mrs. John Reffett, of Fifteenth street, is convalescing from the effects of an operation performed several days ago.

—Announcement cards, worded as below, have been received here by members of P. I. McCarthy Council, K. of C., and others:

—Mrs. W. H. Farris has returned to her home in Flemingsburg, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. S. E. McClanahan, in this city.

—Mrs. J. W. Wright and babe returned to their home at Lebanon Junction, after a visit to her sister, Miss Sallie Hall, in Paris.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Martin and family have moved from Paris to Lexington, having leased a comfortable home in Elm Tree Lane.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Devlin have returned to their home in Owingsville, after a visit to friends and relatives in Shawhan and Paris.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weckesser left Wednesday for a visit to Mrs. Weckesser's mother, Mrs. E. H. Pomeroy, in Elizabeth, West Virginia.

—Mrs. John A. Lyle entertained a number of friends Wednesday afternoon from two to five o'clock, at her home on East Eighth street, with a tea.

—Mrs. Hershel Humble and baby daughter, Jane White Humble, have returned to their home in Somerset, after a visit to friends and relatives in this city and county.

—Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Campbell, both of Lexington, officers of the State C. W. R. M. were present Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the Mission Circle of the Christian church, held in the church parlors.

—The Business Women's Club held an important and well-attended meeting Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The Junior Group drilled a class in gymnastic work, while the Senior Group met for the purpose of studying parliamentary law.

—The next meeting of the Art Department of the Bourbon County Woman's Club will be held Wednesday afternoon, November 10. The general subject will be, "Art in the Home, Interior Decorating." Mrs. Fannie Belle Sutherland will give an illustrated lecture from the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

—Alvin Thompson and Robert Adair, of Paris, were members of a Halloween party spending a few days in camp at Camp Cliff Echo, on the Kentucky river. The party was composed of Lexington, Paris, Cynthiana, Mt. Sterling and Winchester society people.

—Miss Helen Hutchcraft, of Paris, will leave soon to take part in a speaking tour in the interest of the Mission Circle under the supervision of the Christian Women's Board of Missions. The Christian churches in Lexington, Versailles, Harrodsburg, Georgetown and Winchester will be included in Miss Hutchcraft's itinerary.

—The Knights of Columbus Dancing Club, Lexington, Kentucky, wish to announce their Fall and Winter Dances, beginning Thursday, November fourth, and continuing throughout the winter or every other Thursday evening, from eight-thirty to twelve. A Quintette. Invitations must be presented at the door.

—The meeting of the Women's Club, Wednesday, afternoon at the rooms in the Masonic Temple was a most interesting one. Miss Alice Hallam was greeted by a representative audience of Paris women when she presented a program of "Current Events." The Balkan happenings led off, Miss Hallam closing with a rendition in native Chinese costume of "The Chinese Nightingale."

—Col. Webster P. Huntington, who made a political address in Paris, Monday, claims both Ohio and Kentucky as his home. Col. Huntington is a son-in-law of old Bourbon county. His wife was Miss Arabella Bogle, whose parents built and resided in the fine old home at the intersection of the Lexington pike and the Clintonville pike, at present occupied by Wm. Whaley.

—Miss Favola Dundon, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Dundon, of Paris, a member of the Freshman class of 1920 at the Kentucky University, was favorably mentioned in the beauty and popularity contest recently held by the undergraduates of that institution. Miss Dundon easily filled the requirements of the contest, being both beautiful and popular.

—Miss Dundon is a graduate of the Paris High School, where she was one of the most popular students.

—The Music Department of the Bourbon County Woman's Club will meet on Wednesday, November 17. The subject for study and discussion will be "Indian Music," with Mrs. Wade H. Whitley leader. Under this head the following program will be observed: Paper, "Indian Music," Mrs. J. W. Jones; Illustrations, Vocal, Mrs. Macie White Pithian, Mrs. Tollie Young; Illustrations, Instrumental, Misses Margaret Lall, Esther Boatright, Mrs. Walter Mens, Roll Call, Musical Current Events. COMMERCIAL CLUB ACTIVITIES.

With the election out of the way, the Paris Commercial Club will seek to obtain the interest of Paris citizens in various phases of civil development and a large program of activities will be gotten under way immediately. Among the activities which are expected to be taken up during the month of November are, in addition to the interest-group meetings, weekly noon lunches, a campaign to advertise abroad the resources and advantages of Paris, and the annual election of officers and directors.

A schedule of three group meetings has been prepared by M. P. Collier, director of the Department of Business Affairs, as follows: Monday, Nov. 5, Retail Development; Monday, Nov. 8, Transportation; Tuesday, Nov. 9, Industrial Development. These meetings will be held in the Commercial Club office, in the Leck-Kent Oil Co. room, and will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting on retail development is expected to be attended by practically all retailers and all business men or any other interested citizens are invited to be present. All subjects pertaining to improvement of general retail conditions in Paris are open for discussion. Among them will be: Methods of securing "team work" among retailers; Establishment of a credit bureau; Advertising at home and in surrounding communities; Establishment of cluster light system on Main street; Improvement general appearance of store fronts; Noon lunches; A window display contest during the holiday season; A campaign to encourage "Trading At Home."

An equal number of important questions will come up for discussion at the meeting on transportation, which will be held Monday night. This meeting, although of general interest to the public, is of particular interest to all manufacturers as well as many retailers. The coal situation, the freight rate question, additional and improved passenger service, a review of the efforts to obtain new stations in Paris, will be included in the discussion.
